FOREWORD

As our twelve years of school are nearing an end some of us are happy to leave and others are not. Some of us realize that the twelve years of school may be the best years of our life.

We can't remember all of the happy moments at J. L., but we shall try to remember some of them. And as the years go by we hope we can look back at this annual and remember some of the good times at J. L. S.

A D M I N I S T R A T I O N

Mr. Sollars

Mr. Shaw

SEATED: Alice Kettler, Clerk; Royal Harrison, President; Carl Snyder, Vice President.
STANDING: Roy Smith, Ed Kisabeth, William Holman.

J. L. SUPERINTENDENT . . .

To the Seniors:

We hope that our school has given you the proper basis for understanding and living in our complex society.

It is our earnest wish that you continue to have the desire to excel which has been a distinguishing feature of your class.

Finally, we would like for you to keep in mind that no person lives to himself alone. Other people and God should have an increasingly larger part in your life.

—Mr. Sollars

S. KENNETH SOLLARS

B.A., M.A. in Education Administration,
Ohio Wesleyan, Ohio State, Chemistry,
Physics, History, French.

J. L. PRINCIPAL . . .

To the Seniors:

Your class has been a most active class and your place will be difficult to fill.

While in school you have made many contributions to the life of the school and have been noted for your whole hearted co-operation with those in charge of your activities and education.

May you always face challenging problems which will draw out your greatest promise of successful manhood and womanhood.

May you find happiness and a fair amount of success in any useful work you may attempt and may you attempt your fair share.

Good luck and may God bless you.

J. L.'S PARENT TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Paul Beckhusen, President; Virginia Stull, Secretary; Pauline Harris, Vice President; Mary Striff, Treasurer.

This year the P.T.A. conducted a membership campaign through the school.

The P.T.A. sponsored a basketball game between Liberty and Jackson Township, to raise money. Both men and women teams competed. The women from Liberty took the honors, while the men from Jackson won their game.

The children from the first and second grade presented the Christmas program. Later Santa Claus arrived with candy treats for the kiddies.

The Association purchased playground equipment.

A three act comedy was presented by the P.T.A. this year, proving a real success.

We hope that this organization will continue to bring about better parent and teacher relationship and that the friends, teachers, and parents will continue to support its activities in future years so that it can carry on the same fine work that it has accomplished in the past.

THIS I SHALL LEAVE

We, the members of the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, Jackson-Liberty High School, City of Amsden, County of Seneca, State of Ohio, the United States of America, being of sound mind and memory, do make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

FIRST: To Jackson-Liberty High School we offer our deepest sympathy that never again will there be a Senior Class, with such talent, good looks, and one that is as fine and lovable as the class of "58."

SECOND: To the Faculty we do will and bequeath memories of such a scholastic, hard working class as ours.

To the Junior Class, we do will and bequeath the ease with which we have handled the faculty in dear old J.L.H.S. with the hope you will do the same

To the Sophomore Class, we do will and bequeath our ability to have as many on the Honor Roll as we have had

To the Freshman Class, we do will and bequeath our ability to make and spend our vast amount of wealth

To Mr. Sollars We leave!

To Mr. Shaw, we do will and bequeath another Democracy Class of one hundred percent attendance five days a week

To Mr. Kettler, we do will and bequeath a Senior Class with the same promptness as possessed by the class of "58", especially in getting to home room period on time

To Mrs. Murphy, we do will and bequeath 4 new staplers during the last 10 minutes putting the Newshound together, providing she receives them before the bell rings.

To Mr. Foutkes, we do will and bequeath all our rat tails and pigeon heads for the pest hunt next year.

To Mr. Davis, we do will and bequeath three less basketball players measuring six feet, three inches from the floor.

To Mrs. Emmert, we do will and bequeath a future Macbeth and Lady Macbeth.

To Mrs. Smith, we do will and bequeath five automatic dishwashers so her little angels won't get those rough, red, dishwasher hands

To Mrs. Enwall, we do will and bequeath another interesting chemistry class so smart that they will never again send the student body into a flurry while testing their experiments

To Miss Huff, we do will and bequeath all the musicians, instruments in the Senior Class, drums, horns, and cymbals.

To Mrs. Kettler, our secretary, we do will and bequeath fifty less feet pattering into her office a day asking her for a pencil.

To Mr. Massie, we do will and bequeath twenty-five less love letters and gum wrappers in the halls.

To the cooks, we do will and bequeath twenty-five less mouths to fill

To the cheerleaders, we do will and bequeath another roaring pep club.

To Bob Gee, we do will and bequeath twenty-five less students to clean up after

I, Gail Ecker, do will and bequeath the editorship of the Newshound to Linda Vogel

I, Betty Frisch, do will and bequeath my natural curly hair to Betty Colwell.

I, Bob Graber, do will and bequeath my position as stage manager to anyone who can fulfill it.

I, Paul Hughes, do will and bequeath my ability to get to classes on time to Bernard Scharger

I, Virgil Hughes, do will and bequeath my Chevy to anyone who can keep it going all the time.

I, Sandra Jones, do will and bequeath all my books to anyone who can find them, by the time that classes begin.

I, Tom Kissling, do will and bequeath my ability as Senior Class President, to anyone who can be in home room period 5 days a week.

I, Janet Luzader, do will and bequeath my four years of Home Ec. to Lula Byers.

I, Marvin Ludwig, do will and bequeath my promptness and speed to Ronnie Krupp

I, Ronnie Ginnever, do will and bequeath my ability to stay awake in classes to Joe Sagan.

I, Bob McGough, do will and bequeath my ability to dance to anyone who thinks they can do better.

I, Earl Myers, do will and bequeath my weight to Art Bickelhaupt.

I, Ruth Nicholson, do will and bequeath my shy, bashful ways with boys to Rosemary Myers.

I, Barbara Nye, do will and bequeath my ability to stick with one guy to Sue Compton.

I, Judy Rouser, do will and bequeath my shortness to Carl Bricker.

I, Martha Sacimon, do will and bequeath my loyalty for Dick to Janet Feasel providing she stays loyal to Clark.

I, Joan Sabo, do will and bequeath my long, blond hair to Peggy Meyer.

I, Sandra Sayre, do will and bequeath my cars to anyone who has the courage to drive them.

I, Ruth Ann Shaferly, do will and bequeath my ability to stay away from boys to Beatrice Kellar

I, Betty Stahl, do will and bequeath my soft voice to Alberta Hallinger.

I, Kathleen Steinmetz, do will and bequeath my editorship of the annual to anyone who likes work.

I, Mary Williams, do will and bequeath my patience with the teachers to Ronnie Hedden.

I, Kay Fookum, do will and bequeath my cheerleading ability to Marcia M Donald

I, Mary Peters, do will and bequeath my laugh to Earl J. Myers.

I, Barbara McElhaney, do will and bequeath my ability to get a diamond to Paulette Huffman.

We, Tom, Bob, and Paul, do will and bequeath our ability to get out of school to anyone who needs it

We, Robert, Virgil, and Earl, do will and bequeath our ability to get into trouble to anyone who feels mean.

We, Ronnie and Marvin, do will and bequeath our ability to be seen in Fostoria to anyone who can't have fun elsewhere.

We, the Athletes of the Senior Class, do will and bequeath all the athletic department to any group capable of filling it.

We, the Dramatists of the Senior Class, do will and bequeath dramatics to anyone who feels like dramatizing.

In witness whereof, we have set our hands and seal this Twenty-fifth day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight.

CLASS PROPHECY

Last week I received a letter at the T.V. studio (where I act in a serial), from Kathleen Steinmetz telling of the Class of 1958's reunion to be held at her place June 1, 1978. I was so thrilled I sent a return letter saying I would certainly be there. I could just imagine the surprises I would have when I saw all my classmates who had become complete strangers in the last 20 years. Surprises came sooner than I expected for as I was addressing Kathleen's envelope this is how it read: Miss Kathleen Steinmetz, (Editor of the Moon Gazette) Shine Street, Moon Town, Moon.

Now, I knew this get together would be exciting. I have dreamed of visiting one of the planets ever since the famous Air Force Mechanic, Virgil Hughes, invented the passenger rocket which very inexpensively carried vacationers to outer space. It seemed like years till June 1st rolled around, but finally I found myself phoning a taxi to take me to the rocket station where I soon would be off to the moon. As the taxi drove up to my house I realized the driver was also a J.L. Class of '58 graduate. Earl Myers then told me he had controlling interest in all taxi service in New York. He also said he and his wife were going to the reunion too, and that she was waiting at the station trying to get last minute seats for the trip.

After we arrived at the station we had about 30 minutes before blast off, so the first thing I did was to buy a newspaper and sit down to enjoy some earthly reading before entering the rocket.

Wouldn't you know it, the first article to catch my attention was of a railroad engineer, Tom Kissling, being sued by the great veterinarian, Robert Graber, for derailing his train and traveling right through the dog pond, right smack dab through the middle of the dog pond.

About the time I finished the paper I heard a ladies voice over the loud speaker telling all passengers to get aboard the rocket. The voice sounded very familiar and when I looked up I saw it was Ruth Ann Shaferly. Ruth Ann was the head sec'y. at the Rocket Air Lines and was doing quite well for herself. The mink stole she wore when she finally entered the ship, proved it.

Once the rocket was in the air I got up courage enough to open my eyes. I was surely glad I did for much to my surprise Judy Rouser, pardon me, Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. McGough were sitting right across the aisle. We talked for a long time and then I suddenly began thinking how high we were and I began to feel pretty low, so Dr. Bob suggested I go to the front of the plane where his medical sec'y., Sandra Sayre was, and she would gladly furnish me with some space sick pills.

The pills did wonders and again I was searching the rocket for J.L. '58 graduates.

I entered the rocket's kitchen and spied Betty Stahl (Mrs. Dick Woessner) warming a bottle on the stove. I chatted with Betty for awhile and learned that Dick was pres. of Pet Milk Co. and she and Dick had 4 children. I wonder if buying a cow would be cheaper in their case?

The stove didn't have time to cool till Barb McElhaney (Mrs. Roland Hutchins) came in with her set of twins and two more bottles. Barbara's high class manners and dress gave me a hint to the fact that Roland was now co-owner of the Atlas Crankshaft.

All of a sudden the rocket began to shake and roll and rock till everyone was so jumbled and mixed up that quite a panic occurred. Just at that moment someone rushed from the coffee room and dashed off to the pilot control room. I thought I recognized his hair so I decided to investigate. By then the ship had smoothed to a gentle upward direction and everyone was once again in their right seats. When I reached the Pilot room, there was the Air Force Pilot, Paul Hughes, ear phones and all, calmly guiding the ship to its destination. In the co-pilot's seat was seated a tall, pale man that looked as if he had had the scare of his life. Paul explained that he had been chatting with this ex-J.L. '58 student, Ronnie Ginnever, when he decided to leave Ronnie in charge while he went to heat some coffee. Ronnie, being a truck driver had no idea how to control the shaking ship and I guess he was really relieved when Paul came dashing back. When Ron finally could speak, all he said was that he guessed he would stick to truck driving.

Later in the passenger section I saw Dr. McGough and an x-ray technician treating a lady who had evidently been hurt during the shake up. I was really surprised to see that the injured person was Betty

CLASS PROPHECY

Frisch or better known these days as Mrs. Milton Berle Jr. who travels the world with her husband as a great comedian team.

I guess Betty was leaning over the seat entertaining Susie Frey, the crying daughter of Martha Saalman Frey when the rocket decided to go hay wire and Betty went sailing over the seat ending her performance for the day. Betty was lucky though for the x-ray that Mrs. Fred Cockrane gave Betty proved that she came through with no broken bones. That's when I learned that Joan Sabo had gone to x-ray technical school and later married Fred Cockrane and was now the mother of 2 children both of school age.

I finally decided to return to my seat and just think about all the classmates I had seen and try to figure out who I hadn't seen yet. Just then I noticed a gray haired man seated about 4 seats up reading a hot rod magazine. Gee, he sure did look distinguished and what a pretty wife he had beside him. I wondered if he could have been a '58 graduate. I couldn't stand the suspense so I asked Judy and Bob and they said it was Marvin Ludwig who was one of the best known car customizers in Oklahoma. I didn't hear if Marvin had any children because right then the rocket jazz band began to play and Kay Yoakum one of our classmates sang a few numbers. Kay had surely made a name for herself since she started to sing for the Cocacobanna Club three years after graduating.

A yellow light flashed above the pilot room door signifying that we were to fasten our seat belts for a landing.

What a thrill actually being on the moon. I could hardly move my eyes fast enough to take in all the strange wonderful sights. But being equally anxious to see the remainder of the class I hurried to Kathleen's house where we were greeted by her private sec'y. (Mrs. Mary Williams Smith.) Mary and her 3 children pinned moon shaped name tags on us and we adjourned to the all glass sun room or should it be moon room or mars room, oh well, just the all glass room. So far the day was perfect, everything Kathleen had planned was exciting and wonderful, that is, everything but the green cheese she served for an afternoon snack.

Somehow I managed to get it down but I just didn't feel quite as good until two women on the other side of the room caught my attention. At first I thought they were fighting but found out it was just a disagreement. You see, Barbara Nye who is making a career as an Army WAC, was finding a few faults with other branches of the service and ran into an obstacle when she was overheard by the wife of the Air Force Mechanic, Virgil Hughes. This difficulty was soon settled when Janet Luzader, the superintendent of all Fostoria High Schools applied her knowledge of straightening out disagreements.

When Kathleen again started passing the green cheese around the room, I knew the only way of refusing to take a piece was to leave the room before it got to my seat. This plan would have worked beautifully if Ruth Nicholson hadn't decided to pass the plate the opposite way I thought she would and caught me before I had time to excuse myself. If Ruth knew how I hated to take that cheese, she probably would have felt very bad because Ruth is now Personnel Manager of S. S. Kresge Store and their motto is to always satisfy the customer. My life was saved or should I say my appetite was saved when Nancy Miller, daughter of Mrs. Mary Peters Miller let her French Poodle get a little too close. I must say even the dog looked disappointed when he bit down. At midnight when the party began to break up everyone agreed that the day would have been perfect if only one more '58 graduate could have enjoyed this reunion. Sandra Jones was the only classmate that could not make the party. Sandra was on a tour with her husband Coach Larry Hedden and his famous Salem World Strollers who had a game scheduled, for June 1st with the equally famous Harlem Globe Trotters.

As we all gathered in the rocket for the homeward trip we heard on the radio that Larry's team won with a score of 200 to 250.

Once again on earth we said good-byes and agreed to hold another such party in 1988, ten years later, this time, I said I would entertain the group but I told them not to be disappointed if that day didn't compare with the one we had just enjoyed. In everyone's estimation it couldn't have been better.

Classes and organizations elect representatives to this body. Class sponsors and club sponsors should advise their groups if requested, relative to the merits of certain questions that arise. However, anything that the student council does is subject to the veto of the Head of the school.

The purpose of the organization is to get the pupil's viewpoint on certain questions. This has been active in our school for many years.

This body has charge of the budgets. The purpose is to see that classes are allowed certain money making projects according to their needs in so far as possible. The council also finances the Honor Society, both the County and National. Also it finances the Athletic Banquet. At various times it helps out with other projects.

The magazine sales is the most important money making venture. This year, this project proved very successful.

Our school has been a member of the Seneca County Chapter of the National Honor Society since the school year of 1947-1948. To become a member of this society, a student must have a grade average of B with no semester grade below B during the senior year. The student must also have earned 32 activity points during the junior and senior years and the recommendation of the High School Faculty.

Jackson-Liberty has had the following members:

- 1947-1948 — Kyle Bigham, Kathryn Bachman, Ann Kassing, Richard Sour, Mary Elaine Few.
 1948-1949 — Kathleen Coleman, Don Ecker, Catherine Kellar, Wanda Omwake, Beverly Sour, Vondale Swaisgood.
 1949-1950 — Betty Bricker, Zelma Kissling, Betty Gamby, Duane Byers.
 1950-1951 — Patty Roth, Jeanne Jones, Duane Baldwin, Robert Hammer.
 1951-1952 — Dave Loomis, Malcolm Holenbaugh, Tom Bricker, Ray Saalman, Dorothy Kummerer, Marilyn Rouser, Bonnie Brubaker, Betty Hatfield, Jeannette Butler.

THE SWEETEST GIRL IN TOWN

The scene is a reception room in a smart summer hotel. The story concerns the romance of young Harry Hart, played by Tom Kissling, for Jackie Sweet, a manicurist, played by Ruth Edinger. Harry's father, Lyon Hart, has made a million with Hart's Famous Mustard Sauce and Mrs. Hart, his mother, is determined to use their wealth to achieve great social position. She is the "boss" of the family and insists that her son marry Truly Hunting, a girl who is long on background but short on cash and who desires to make an advantageous marriage, financially. Mrs. Hart determines to break off Harry's engagement to Jackie and has Jackie discharged from her position in the hotel. While at College, Harry's roommate and pal was young Jack Stewart, whose initials happen to be the same as Jackie's, so Harry contacts a scheme to have Jackie impersonate his pal and pay him a visit. In Act Two we find Jackie looking very trim in boy's clothes and being adored by all the girls, especially Harry's mother. All goes well until the real Jack Stewart puts in his appearance. Riotously funny complications develop, but everything is straightened out satisfactorily. There are several amusing minor romances running through the play, including Willie Love, a bashful and studious youth, and Ida Downe, a romantic young thing; also a comic Doctor Quack, who tries desperately to escape the attentions of Mrs. Lotta Doe, a wealthy widow, with imaginary ills.

We would like to thank Miss Huff for another year of hard work in the music department.

She has really gone "places" with the Septette this year. The band played at all home ball games. The music contestants brought home honors in the clinic, district, and state contests. The operetta was put on well with a large audience enjoying every moment of it.

The juniors and seniors would once again like to thank her for applying the make-up for the junior and senior class plays and pictures

BAND

The Jackson-Liberty Band consisting of fifty-three members is an organization which has been very active this year. During the summer months, we played at the Fairs, Ice Cream Socials and the Fireman's Convention in Bryan. Movies were taken at the Fireman's Convention of our band and about a week later several of the members saw themselves on T.V.

We played at all of our home basketball games and enjoyed doing several new and different shows. The Band Boosters sold tickets on cakes at each home game. We were rained out at the Fostoria Halloween Parade but we figured that 53 disappointments were better than 53 sick kids!! After the Risingsun Halloween Parade the Boosters served a lunch and we played records and danced at J-L school. The Boosters have really been active this year and we owe them a big thank you for the fine tenor saxophone and bass clarinet which they bought for the band in February. They certainly add a lot to the band.

Several of our members had the honor of playing in the All County Band which was held in November at Bloomville School under the direction of Walter Szells from Fremont Ross High

SEPTETTE

This year these six snappy gals have added a guy, Ed Wilcox to their ensemble. After the first performance this year their picture was in the paper with headlines, "A Lonely little petunia in an onion patch". Although out-numbered he certainly is not out-done for Ed takes the solo in several numbers while the girls add the background music. We feel like they have really made a hit this year for they have sung for so many organizations large and small, both far and near. They always manage to have a lot of fun together — for example, ask the girls about the night they sang for the Lions Club at the Y.M.C.A. in Fostoria. What happened on the way home, Linda, when your mother was dropping off the girls? There seemed to be a few Risingsun kids having a lot of fun. They were ahead of them and wouldn't budge unless they moved in reverse. Call the cops, Linda!!

CLARINET TRIO

The music department at Jackson-Liberty is always very proud of their clarinet ensemble. Most of their hard work is put forth at contest time. They had a little misfortune this year at the Clinic music contest. Sue got very sick that afternoon and they had to come home before they played. They are looking forward to the District which is March 8th and hope by then that the flu bug is gone. Poor Sue seemed to have all the troubles this year, for two days before contest her clarinet cracked because of the cold weather. Then the day of the contest she worked a half an hour trying to find a reed that would work, and then got so sick she couldn't play. We hope all of your troubles are over Sue, and wish the trio the best of luck at the District contest

ONE ACT PLAY

PATCHWORK QUILT
by Rachel Lyman Field

Mrs. Willis
Anne, her daughter
Joe, Anne's husband
Betty, their daughter
Molly I
William
Emily
Molly II

Joan Sabo
Gail Ecker
Bob McGough
Ruth Edinger
Sandra Sayre
Paul Hughes
Linda Cramer
Judy Rouser

On their wedding day, William gives Molly the deed to the farm she loves, to keep it safe, she sews it in secret into a patchwork quilt. Years later Joe and Anne wish to sell the farm, but must have the deed. Molly (old Mrs. Willis) has forgotten where she put it. She can remember the past only when she looks at her quilt, but Anne thinks it is ugly and takes it away from her, and Mrs. Willis' mind is blank.

They placed second, receiving a superior rating at the county and went to the state contest

Mrs. Emmert

Gail Ecker

Mr. Davis
Sr. Class Play Director

We would like to thank Mrs. Emmert for the fine job she did in directing the one-act play. She and Gail Ecker directed the Junior Class play, which was a huge success. Mr. Davis did a fine job handling the Seniors as their play proved a real success.

So from all the students involved, thank you Mrs. Emmert, Gail Ecker, and Mr. Davis.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

THE LITTLE DOG LAUGHED

The Junior Class selected "The Little Dog Laughed", a comedy, for its class play. According to Mother Goose, "The Little Dog Laughed to see such sport" and he never saw such sport as in this play.

Laurie Huntington (Judy Kissling) majoring in psychology comes home from college. Her father, Sid Huntington (Ronald Hedden) is worried about his used car business and fears his loan from the bank will not go through and his rival Ted Wood (Ronald Krupp) will get the dealership. Martha Huntington (Marcia McDonald) tries to help her husband by inviting Walola Breckenridge (Peggy Meyer) wife of the bank president, to a tea, as well as a number of other important ladies—Amelia Dennis (Linda Vogel), Caroline Blakesly (Jean Lanning), Grace Schoenbeck (Paulette Huffman) and Theresa Brown (Frances Kettler). Laurie tries out some of her psychology tests on the ladies and, infuriated, they leave.

Laurie's interference ruins the romance of her kid brother Wally (Wendell Holman) and Joan Wood (Ruth Edinger) and convinces the maid, Gus, (Janet Feasel) that she is a genius and should go to college and become the intellectual equal of her boy friend Horatio Honeywell (Jack Harris) a bird fancier and taxidermist. While she is on a date with Mark Bradford (Earl J. Myers), her parents find her notes in which she "psychologized" them all and decide to teach her a lesson by applying her theories. Eventually everyone ends up with a better understanding of each other; Sid and Ted become partners, Martha and Lillian Wood (Beatrice Kellar) become close friends, Wally and Joan re-discover each other and Laurie learns that psychology is a dangerous thing and finds that the important things are family love and understanding, and Mark

The play was directed by Gail Ecker and Mrs. Emmert, Carolyn Thaxton was prompter; Jane Walton and Barbara Kimble had charge of tickets and programs. Carl Bricker was electrician, Ray Reidling, Harold Hatfield, Larry Ginnever, Don Scherger and Eugene Luzader were the Stage Crew.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

MEN ARE LIKE STREET CARS

A lighthearted comedy in three acts which spins its merriment around vivacious Maudy (Sandra Jones). Maudy, the teenage sophisticate who believes she is mature far beyond her years, has the audience gasping for air as she tries to marry sister Sylvia (Gail Ecker) to some man and get her away from home.

Her antics almost force Mother (Joan Saba) and Father (Virgil Hughes) to move out of town. She screams when she finds sister Sylvia dating her steady Davy (Paul Hughes) and is forever trying to get Jerry (Bob McGough) to propose to Sylvia.

She can't leave the wedding arrangements alone and almost makes a mess of this too. Given moral support by three teenage girl friends, Lysbeth (Judy Rouser), Alix (Martha Soalman) and Julie (Kathleen Steinmetz) who copy her philosophy "Men are Like Streetcars, if you miss one another will come along". She makes shambles of almost everything.

Supporting roles are played by Sandra Soyre, Betty Stahl, Betty Frisch, Mary Williams, Ruth Ann Shofarly, Tom Kissling and Ronnie Ginnever.

Robert Graber, Earl Myers, and Marvin Ludwig were the stage managers. Ruth Nicholson, Barbara McElhoney, Kay Yookum, Mary Peters, Janet Luzader and Barbara Nye were prompters, in charge of tickets and program, and provided entertainment between acts.

HAIL THE QUEEN

Hail her Majesty, the Queen!" These words rang through the J-L auditorium on December 31, 1957, as Bob McGough crowned the Homecoming Queen.

Miss Huff and her music department presented some very striking numbers before, during, and after the crowning.

The Freshman attendant was Carolyn Kisa-beth, whose escort was Wendell Holman.

The Sophomore attendant, Janice Steyer, was escorted by Paul Hughes.

The Junior attendant was Jean Lanning, and her escort was Carl Bricker.

The attendant from the Senior class was Betty Frisch, who was escorted by Tom Kissling.

Sharon Hammer made a very cute crown carrier.

Her majesty was Gail Ecker, and her escort was Bob McGough. She wore a dress of black tulle and orange frosted half moons. On her royal head, she wore a beautiful crown, and carried a spray of roses.

After her majesty was seated upon the throne, and her court had taken their places, the J-L Band ended the ceremony by striking off a beautiful number.
